

Below are the guidelines and criteria for Margaret Garrett Scholarship Program.

General Guidelines:

1. Scholarships are only available to MD-DC SHRM members in good standing, preference will be given to members who have exceeded MD-DC SHRM membership for one year prior to submitting application materials for scholarship.
2. All applicants must submit a complete application and letter of recommendation
3. First priority will be given to first time applicants.
4. Funding is limited. All decisions regarding an applicant's approval or denial of a scholarship are made at the discretion of the MD-DC SHRM
5. The decision of the reviewers and the MD-DC SHRM Board are considered final.
6. Scholarship covers Annual Conference registration and lodging.
7. A member can receive up to one scholarship per calendar year.

Applicant Criteria:

1. All applicants must be currently employed at the professional level in the risk management, risk insurance, risk finance, health care law, or patient safety management profession; or must be able to articulate that a career change to the field of risk management/patient safety is a desired professional goal.
2. Scholarships are considered for applicants demonstrating insufficient sources of funding to cover the full cost of the course or program.
3. Ability to demonstrate how newly learned techniques will be applied to improve the organization's overall risk management/patient safety program.
4. Documentation of current involvement in MD-DC SHRM or description of interest in involvement will be considered.
5. Scholarship winner will provide to the Board of Directors a one page summary of what was gained by attending the conference.
